

Meet the Chicago Lawyer Women's Advisory Board

Chicago Lawyer magazine and our sister publication the Chicago Daily Law Bulletin have brought together a group of the top women practitioners in Big Law, academia, bench and bar to help guide our coverage of the evolving profession.

The Chicago Lawyer Women's Advisory Board, which will meet formally twice a year with casual get-togethers in between, is the first of what will be four advisory boards. The Young Lawyers Advisory Board is currently seeking members. To submit your qualifications, e-mail pdailing@lawbulletinmedia.com with the subject line "Advisory Board."
